Metro-North Provides Extra Service for New Year's Eve
Trains Run Round the Clock for Festivities

Riding Metro-North is the safe, convenient way to ring in 2019. The railroad has a special schedule in effect over the New Year's Eve holiday, including trains operating "overnight" in the wee hours of New Year's morning to get you safely home from New York City.

Metro-North reminds customers that drinking alcohol on trains and at our stations is banned from noon New Year's Eve until noon New Year's Day. The railroad encourages customers traveling to New York to purchase round-trip tickets before boarding Grand Central Terminal bound trains. On the night of New Year's Eve, tickets will be collected prior to boarding trains at Grand Central Terminal.

Service details are below, organized by day:

Friday, December 28:
On Friday, December 28, Metro-North will operate a reduced weekday a.m. peak service with additional inbound trains in the late morning. Metro-North will operate 18 extra trains departing Grand Central between 12:58 p.m. and 4:10 p.m. as listed below. After 5 p.m. some trains will be combined or cancelled because of reduced ridership later in the day.

Many Channels for Service Updates
Information about the planned schedule change noted in this press release, and all planned service changes, is available through Metro-North Railroad's real-time service information sources.

MYmta app – Customers who use the new, comprehensive MYmta app will see real-time travel information for Metro-North and connecting services all in one place, with push notifications when service is not operating normally. As a caution, trains that start out their trips on time may experience delays en route. The Metro-North Train Time app also remains available for customers to access Metro-North train information.

MTA.info - The rail tab of the "Service Status" box at new.MTA.info is always the definitive source for the latest status for each line, updated every minute. In addition, customers can visit www.mta.info/mnr to see special service notices in the upper center of the page.

Email and text message service updates – Customers are urged to sign up to receive the alerts by visiting MyMTAAlerts.com. To avoid unwanted messages, a user can tailor the messages to the specific branch, and the specific times of day.

@MetroNorth on Twitter – Twitter users can follow @MetroNorth to receive updates of a similar nature to the email and text alerts, shortened to fit Twitter's format.

The above communications channels can be accessed while at home or on the go. For customers who are located at stations, Metro-North will post the latest service updates on digital signs at station platforms and will make audio announcements over public address systems, and on-board announcements made by train crews.

For those who prefer the telephone, information is available from the Metro-North's Customer Service Center by calling 511, the New York State Travel Information Line, and saying: "Metro-North Railroad." For customers calling from Connecticut, the number is: 877-690-5114. Those who are deaf or hard of hearing can use their preferred service provider for the free 711 relay to reach Metro-North at 511.
